

Your Resource for all things EPM and BI

We transform your enterprise with leading solutions, including Oracle Hyperion and OneStream XF

US-Analytics is a performance management consulting and services firm specializing in today's leading EPM technologies. By removing the obstacles of outdated reporting and forecasting processes, we bring insights to your fingertips, free up IT resources, and empower your team to be boardroom advisers.

We have helped hundreds of companies uncover a 360-degree view of their business: documenting the past with financial close reporting, understanding the present with business analytics, and planning for the future with budgeting and forecasting. By partnering with us, you can harness the power your data holds.
