Service King

Challenge

Excel-based, manual planning and budgeting processes required too much time and did not ensure accuracy. Service King needed a secure platform to streamline their processes and improve data consistency.

Solution / Results

Service King engaged US-Analytics to implement PBCS with two plan types — custom workforce plan and workforce analysis.

Service King now has thousands of employees working on one, connected system with timelier and more consistent processes.